Mohammed K Paika is a multifaceted American artist and label owner from Albuquerque, New Mexico. Outside of his celebrated music career, he is also a practising physician! Blending eastern and western musical influences, Paika comes from a rich lineage of musicians and is a proud humanitarian. His early exposure to Bollywood music and Islamic chanting has inspired him to weave various genres into his compositions.

Throughout his career, Mohammed K Paika has earned numerous awards for his songs and music videos. This includes the Peace Award at the California Music Awards for his first single as a solo artist 'So Many Divisions' (2018). His 2023 singles 'For The Rest Of Our Lives' and 'Love' amassed more than two million views on Youtube. Notably, 'For The Rest Of Our Lives' reached the Top 19 on the USA Pop charts in 2023. Now, after a string of remix releases, Paika is back with a new single that promises to resonate widely.

'Just Human' is a poignant pop track, the latest release from Mohammed K Paika. This powerful pop song addresses the prevalent global crises, urging humanity towards peace. Underscored with a fusion of drums, synths, piano and bass elements, the song's power lies in its message and is emphasized in its strong production from award-winning producer Kyle Townsend. The song is already making waves globally, with airplay on Heart Radio, New York FM and London FM. Within just two weeks of release, the impressive 'Just Human' music video has already gained over 3 million views on Youtube! 'Just Human' isn't merely a song, it's a call for unity and peace that the world needs to hear.
