Ada Morghe aka Alexandra Helmig is an award-winning artist from Germany known for her captivating vocals and diverse musical style, often described as contemporary jazz. Besides a successful career as an actress and author, Ada Morghe's music career began when she wrote and starred in the play-turned-film "Frau Mutter Tier" (2019) - and wrote its soundtrack. She has since released a string of well-received albums, attained over a million streams across DSPs, and worked with noteworthy names such as Sony Music, Grammy award-nominee Booker T, and innovative breakbeat duo 4hero. Moving from strength to strength, 2023 was a standout year for ADA with the release of her conceptual album "Lost" and a sold-out tour in Germany.

Now, she's back with a new single, the beautiful jazz pop track 'You and I (1975)'. Written and composed entirely by Ada Morghe herself, this memorable song's upbeat melody and catchy lyrics stay with you from the first listen. Smooth keys, a bouncy beat and Ada's velvet-smooth vocals set the tone for a lighthearted track, perfect for tapping your feet and singing along. 'You and I (1975)' is sure to captivate listeners with its timeless appeal, making it an irresistible addition to any playlist.
